The Modern Greek minor is offered by the Department of Classics, and includes courses in the language, culture, and literature of the Greek world. Students studying Modern Greek progress from an elementary working knowledge of the language to oral and written fluency. Once students have mastered basic patterns of speech and grammar, they are introduced to the literature of one of the world's richest cultures.

The minor in Modern Greek requires at least 5 courses (15 hours) above 1103.

Once the Department Undergraduate Director has approved the Minor Program Form, students should file the form with the College of Arts and Sciences Advising and Academic Services. For further information about the minor program, contact the Department of Greek and Latin.
